THE HORNET STAFF

East Central High School
Rt. 2, Pascagoula, Miss.

East Central is your school, and this is your book. Its purpose is to recall to memory your high school, its people and places.

Sure, we studied and crammed for the finals, but the entire student body, from the first grade to the twelfth grade enjoyed itself this year. In August we were glad to get back together--to start classes--to work and play together.

These days, filled with its classes... ball games... campus society formals ...and the spirit of advancing education is worth remembering.

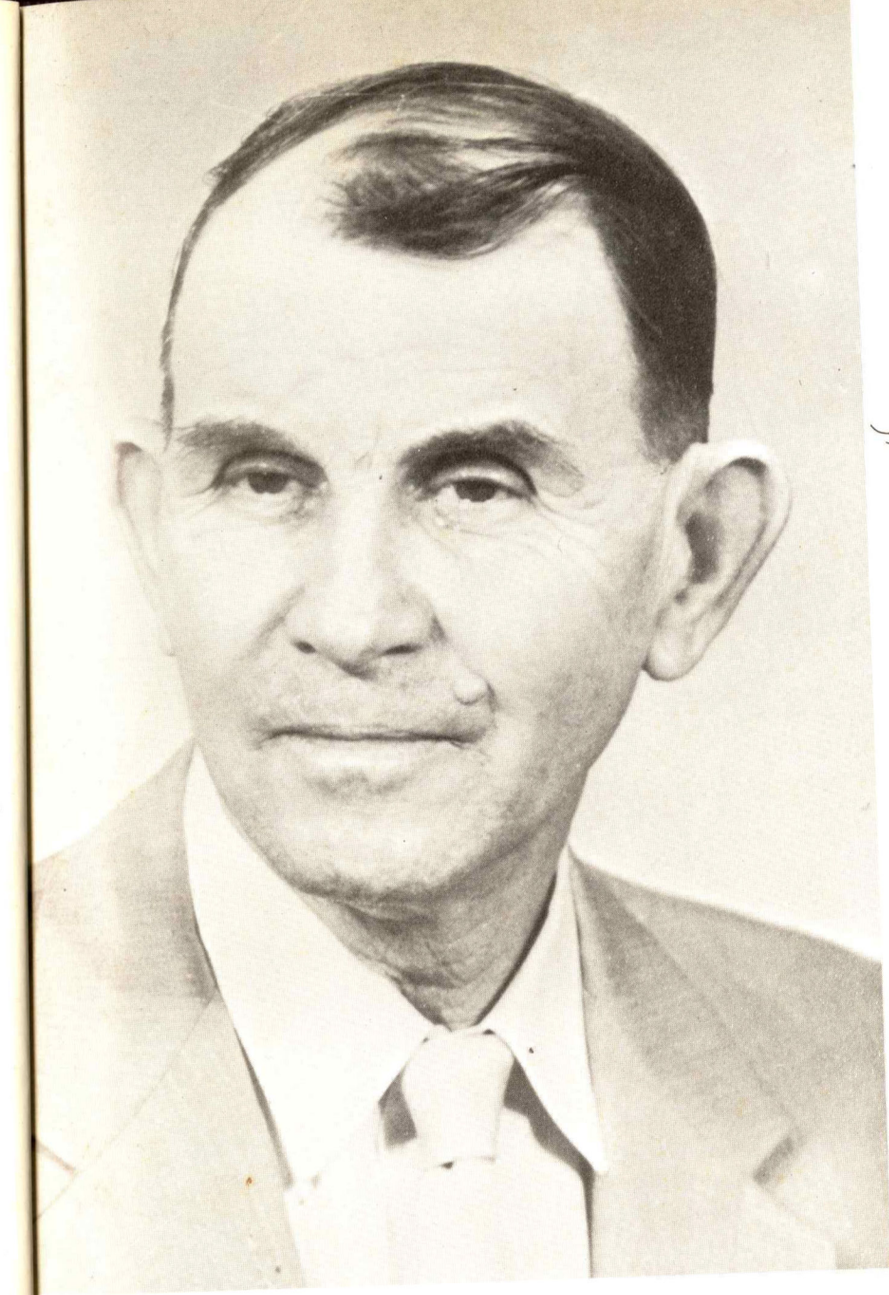
They are all pictured on these pages. THIS WAS OUR YEAR and we loved it. We can now remember as we see before us our finished product.

For this purpose, the 1966 HORNET is given to you--the student who makes the school.

Foreword

"It is the men and women, boys and girls so poured in and out all day that give the building a soul of dreams and thoughts and memories."

Carl Sandburg



"Good night, Ensured release,
Imperishable peace,
Have these for yours."

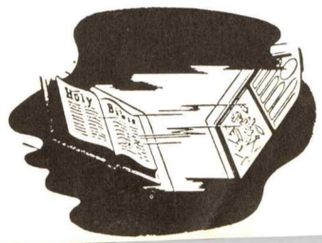
In Memory of T. E. Johnson

"Mr. Cap"

Wise men have often asserted that we are part of all that we meet--that each of our lives is like a blank sheet of paper upon which everyone we encounter makes a separate mark. If this be true, we think it fitting that the 1966 Hornet Staff pay tribute to a man whose wisdom will linger in the minds of the students and teachers long after his name has faded from their memories.

A memorial to "Mr. Cap" is more than simply expressing appreciation for his diligent labor and endless devotion. He was behind the students in scholastic work, on the football field, basketball court or in anything of interest to the school. His interest did not waver from the time, 40 years ago, when he taught in the Wade School, or while holding the position of President of the Jackson County Board of Education for the past 35 years.

The debt owed him by the sons of society can never really be repaid. It can, at least by this page, be acknowledged and revered as a memorial to one so well loved by all.



We, the editors of the HORNET of 1966, dedicate this yearbook to the largest graduating class of E.C.H.S.

THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1966

For 12 years you have fought the ill winds of illiteracy; opened the doors to learning and sought the light of knowledge and truth.

You have, in your own special way, radiated trust and friendship among other students and the teachers.

You have made friends in every phase of your school life. It began with a friendly hello, the nod of a head, a short chat in the hall way or perhaps a hopeful glance. The strength of the chain of friendship was determined by you as you added links with each new friend you made.

You have conceived learning as an academic achievement; discovering that it is not only academic knowledge, but also mental, spiritual and physical growth.

As you have reached maturity, your knowledge will become more specific. Your scope of ideas, thoughts, and actions will be influenced by what you have learned. You will find that your knowledge is significant in the vastness of this world unless you properly stress its importance.

Each of you have your own concept of further learning. But it is our wish that you will be a success in your chosen vocation, include the desire to help build a stronger nation for your tomorrows and that you may live a more abundant life.

The Graduates' Prayer

Oh, make us worthy, God, we pray,
To do Thy service every day;
Endow us with the strength we need
For every sacrificial deed!

The SENIOR CLASS OF 1966, do wish, in turn, to give credit for our hour of triumph where credit is due----to our beloved MOMS AND DADS, who helped ease our heartaches and disappointments and rejoiced with us in our successful and happy moments. As a tribute to the loyal and unselfish love, we dedicate this space in our annual to you---

MOM AND DAD

You have given us riches and ease,
You have given us joys through the years,
We sat in the shade of the trees
With the song of the birds in our ears.
While you toiled from daylight to dark,
We did as we chose to do.
But, oh, dear Mom and Dad of mine
How little I have done for you.

You have given us safe harbor from harm,
Untroubled we slept through the nights,
And waked to the new mornings' charm
And claimed as my own its delights.
We have taken the finest of fine,
From the orchards and fields where we grew,
But, oh, Mom and Dad of mine
How little I have done for you.

You have given us a home and a place
Where in safety we could run and play;
Health bloomed on each childish face
And laughter was ours every day.
We have taken your gifts without thought,
And reveled in the joys that you gave.
We see now the tears and heartaches we brought,
When we asked for the last penny you'd saved.
We've lived without making one sign
That the source of our riches we knew,
But after this triumphant hour of mine,
I'm going to do something for you.

The Principal Speaks

Another success story has been written by the faculty, patrons, and students of East Central High School during the school session of 1965-66.

The Hornet exemplifies to the fullest extent the evidence of progress and growth within East Central High School.

We are grateful to all those who have given their effort that we may have a condensed record of the events of this school year. May this yearbook serve as a challenge and inspiration to those who will have the same responsibilities in future years.

When this book is opened again after a score of years, the people who are shown here will be scattered throughout the world. Only picture and precious memories of wonderful events will remain wherever we are and whatever we have become. We can look back and be thankful we had a part in our school during this year.

For the first time the activities of the entire school year, from enrollment in August to graduation day in May, is presented through a pictorial resume.

THE HORNET 1966

The staff has attempted to capture the events you will want to remember, the moods and emotions of the students, the activities and organizations which are a vital part of any school campus life....in other words, it's ECHS.

They have worked hard to present a book to please you, the students. Because this is the largest HORNET published, the production of this book required the combined efforts of the entire staff in order to be a success. Deadlines must be met, pictures must be made, copy must be written and the reward is a satisfied student body. Your smiles of pleasure at receiving your HORNET yearbook is our reward, because.....

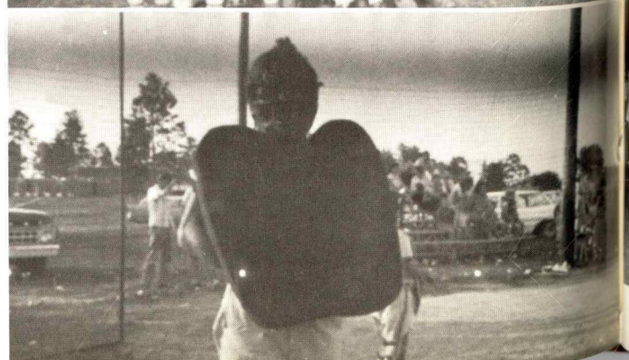
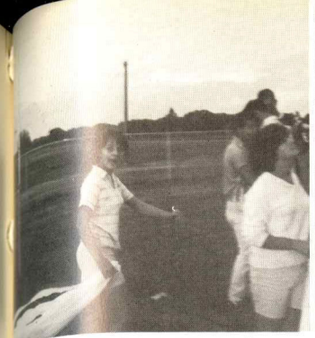
The Pee Wees

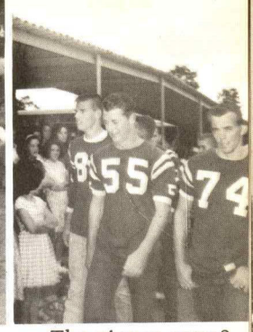




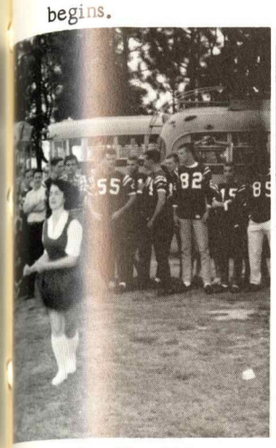
Before the game work begins.

Janie hangs victory streamers.

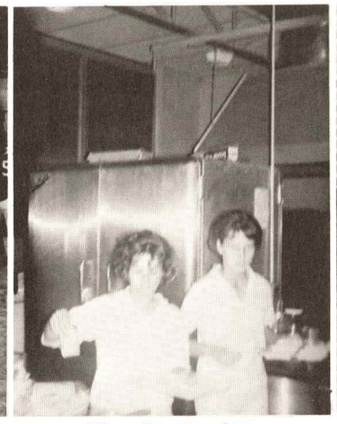
The master speaks and all listen.



The victors enter?

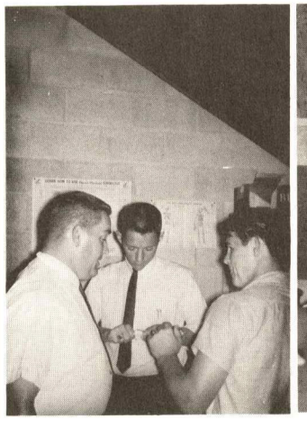


Go Tiny!!!

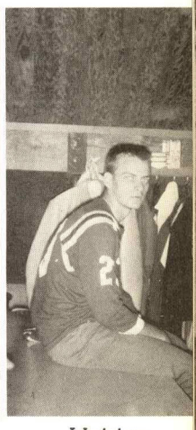


The cheerleaders prepare the victory meal.

It just burns me up.

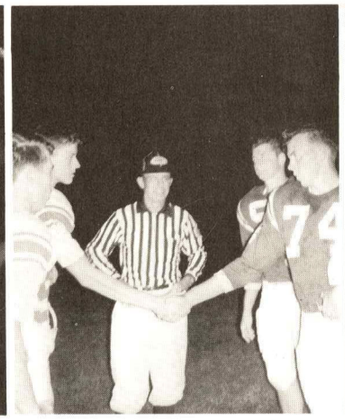


Coaches prepare before the game.

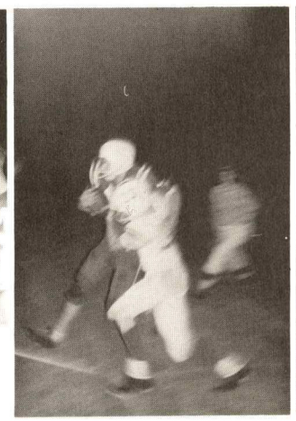


Waiting patiently.

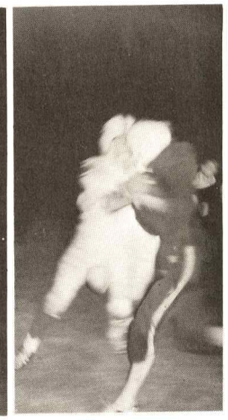
Cathy brings 'em on.



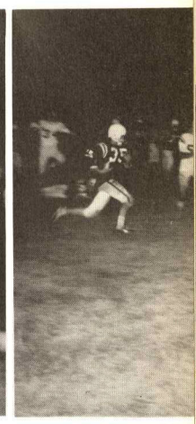
The peace treaty?



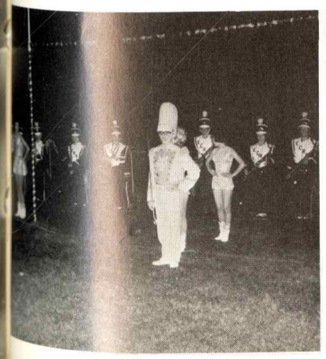
ACTION!!!!!!!!!!



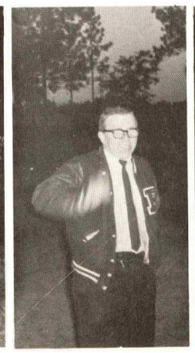
The Hornet sting.



Walley all the way.



The band offers help.



Fight!!!!

Congratulations to the Seniors of '66

NOW IS THE HOUR
WHEN WE MUST SAY GOODBYE
SENIORS YOU'RE LEAVING
DEAR EAST CENTRAL HIGH:

WHILE YOU'RE AWAY
WILL YOU REMEMBER DEAR
WHEN YOU RETURN
YOU'LL FIND ME WAITING HERE.

With sadness our association must end, just as the last pages of HORNET must end. You have been a wonderful class to work with. May each of you receive God's greatest blessings.

M. Baria
